

ERSCP 2019 Best Conference Paper and Poster Award

This award seeks to recognize the best research submitted and presented at the ERSCP 2019 conference by PhD Students and Early Career Researchers as first authors. The award has two categories: Best Conference Paper and Best Conference Poster.

ELIGIBILITY

Conference papers and posters presented in the ERSCP 2019 Conference could be eligible for the award if:

- ✓ The first author is a PhD Student or an Early Career Researcher¹
- ✓ Registered to be considered for the best conference paper and poster award²
- ✓ Do an outstanding presentation in the ERSCP 2019 Conference³

THREE STEPS TO BE ELEGIBLE

1. You are the first author of a high-quality research and you are a PhD student or an early career researcher
 - ✓ As a PhD student
 - Be currently enrolled as a student
 - ✓ As an early career researcher
 - PhD completed after December 31st, 2016
 - Or having a junior research position and having completed a master degree after December 31, 2016
2. Submit your official interest in this form, to be a candidate for the Best Conference Paper and Poster Award until 24:00 of the 15.10.2019.
3. Show your skills and do a great presentation following the guidelines of the Congress, to be the best of your session.

SELECTION PROCESS

Not all conference papers submitted are eligible for the award. Therefore, only when submitting the interest to be considered for the Best Conference Paper and Poster Award, you are confirming that you are eligible because you are the first author of a high-quality research and you can prove that you are a PhD student or an early career researcher.

The criteria to recognize the best research presented at the ERSCP 2019 conference is the balance between theory and practice, the introduction of a new perspective and the innovative topic, besides following the conference guidelines.

- In addition, oral skills will be also considered for the best conference papers' category by each session chair to select the best presentation of his/her session.
- For the best conference posters' category, the APP rating of the public will be also considered.

From these group, a jury will select six (6) award winners for the best papers and posters submitted and presented. The jury consists of ERSCP board members, in combination with members from the conference scientific committee and session chairs.

BENEFITS

Winners of the ERSCP 2019 Best Conference Paper and Poster Award, will be recognized with a Certificate of Excellence in the closing session of the Conference.

A complementary honorarium will be sponsored by Elsevier to motivate high-quality researchers.
